and Managing Director. Trained by a National Consulting firm, he has worked on more than 55-engagements with Middle Market clients in manufacturing, distribution and capital equipment among others. Whether working in tandem with a corporate leader, entrepreneur, or institutional investor, he brings knowledge, commitment, and values that have distinguished his work throughout his career.

Evaluating investment opportunities have included financial modeling, organizational restructuring and due diligence services undertaken on behalf of investor and banking relationships. As a financial manager, he undertook several major restructurings for distinct business entities to include negotiations among principals and investors to avoid legal entanglements. Steve has made multiple presentations to diverse audiences on P&L and key organizational issues.

With broad expertise, Steve can marshal the resources of both the Investment Banking and Management Consulting divisions to bring a successful resolution to financing needs.

Steven holds Series 7, 63, and 79 Securities Licenses. Steve earned an Executive MBA from the University of Southern California, Marshall School of Business with honors and a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with concentration in Venture Management from the Lloyd Grief Center for Entrepreneurial Studies.
